Director Hanna Pushkareva

PRIVACY POLICY. TERMS OF USE OF THE INTERNET PORTAL OF "PRIME ENERGY GROUP" LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY

"PRIME ENERGY GROUP" Limited Liability Company, as the owner of the exclusive property rights to the official internet portal (hereinafter referred to as the Portal), respects the rights of the Portal visitors. We unconditionally recognize the importance of the confidentiality of our Portal visitors' personal information. This page contains information on what data we receive and collect when you use the Portal, in accordance with the Law of Ukraine 'On Protection of Personal Data', other laws, and sub-legislative acts regulating relations in the sphere of personal data protection.

By using the Portal, you agree to these terms. Please read them carefully. We hope they will help you make informed decisions regarding the personal information provided to us.

This Privacy Policy applies only to the Portal and to the personal information of users collected through the Portal. It does not apply to any other websites and is not applicable to third-party websites from which links to the Portal may be made.

As we offer various services to the Portal users, some of them may be subject to additional terms of use and access restrictions.

"PRIME ENERGY GROUP" Limited Liability Company reserves the right to unilaterally amend this Privacy Policy and the Portal's terms of use at any time, in accordance with the law. Such amendments shall take effect from the moment the new version of the Privacy Policy and Portal Terms of Use is posted. If the User disagrees with the amendments made, they are obliged to renounce access to the Portal and cease using the materials and services of the Portal.

USE OF THE PORTAL SERVICES

By using the Portal services, you are not granted any intellectual property rights to the services themselves or the content associated with them. You may use the latter only if you have obtained permission from the owner or if such use is permitted by law. These Terms of Use of the Portal do not grant you the right to use any branding elements or logos of 'PRIME ENERGY GROUP' Limited Liability Company, its structural units, or trademarks.

The Portal services may contain information created or uploaded by third parties, who bear full responsibility for such content. We diligently review the content of this information for compliance with the law and these Terms of Use of the Portal. In the event of discovering serious violations, we reserve the right to delete and block such information. By using the Portal services, we reserve the right to send you administrator notifications and other informational materials.

In certain cases, you may opt out of receiving such communications. We constantly modify and improve our Portal services.

From time to time, we may introduce or remove certain functions and features. We also reserve the right to suspend a specific service or discontinue it altogether.

Do not misuse the Portal services, attempt to interfere with their operation, or seek access by bypassing the standard interface and our instructions or prompts.

YOUR PERSONAL ACCOUNT ON THE PORTAL

Where the relevant functionality exists, accessing certain Portal services may require the registration of a personal account on the Portal and/or the completion of registration forms.

You shall bear personal responsibility for all actions performed on the Portal through your personal account, as well as any activity within it. Accordingly, we recommend that you do not disclose your account password to third parties and avoid reusing it on other web resources. If you discover that unauthorized actions are being performed within your account or using your password, please immediately notify 'PRIME ENERGY GROUP' Limited Liability Company by sending an email to the official address: info@llc-peg.com.

"PRIME ENERGY GROUP" Limited Liability Company does not verify the accuracy of the provided personal data and does not monitor its relevance. "PRIME ENERGY GROUP" Limited Liability Company assumes that you provide accurate information and data and keep them up to date. Responsibility for providing inaccurate, incorrect, incomplete, false, or outdated information and personal data lies with the person who provided them.

Consent to the processing of personal data is entirely voluntary. It is considered that a person using the services of the 'PRIME ENERGY GROUP' Limited Liability Company Portal grants their consent to the processing of personal data. The term of such consent to the processing of personal data is unlimited.

Your personal data may be transferred to the authorized state authorities of Ukraine only on the grounds and in the manner established by the current legislation of Ukraine.

COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

When you visit the Portal, we identify your provider's domain name and country (e.g., 'aol.com') and selected transitions from one page to another (so-called 'clickstream activity').

The information we obtain on the Portal may be used to facilitate your use of the Portal, including, but not limited to:

- organizing the Portal in the most user-friendly manner;
- providing the opportunity to subscribe to a mailing list with special offers and topics, should you wish to receive such communications;

The Portal collects only the personal information that you provide voluntarily when visiting or registering on the Portal. The term 'personal information' includes information that identifies you as a specific person, such as your name/title or email address. While the content of the Portal can be viewed without completing the registration procedure, you will be required to register to use certain features, such as leaving a comment on an article or publication.

The Portal uses 'cookies' technology to generate statistical reports.

A 'cookie' is a small amount of data sent by a website that your computer's browser stores on your computer's hard drive. 'Cookies' contain information that may be necessary for the Portal—to save your viewing preferences and to collect statistical information on the Portal, such as which pages you visited, what was downloaded, the internet service provider's domain name, and the visitor's country, as well as the addresses of third-party websites from which the transition to the Site and beyond was made. However, none of this information is associated with you as an individual. 'Cookies' do not record your email address or any personal information about you.

In addition, we use standard web server logs to count the number of visitors and assess the technical capabilities of our Portal. We use this information to determine statistical data regarding Portal visits for the purpose of organizing pages in the most convenient manner and ensuring the Portal's compatibility with various browsers. We record information about movement on the Portal, but not about individual visitors, so no specific personal information about you will be stored or used by 'PRIME ENERGY GROUP' Limited Liability Company without your consent.

To view content without 'cookies', you can configure your browser to reject 'cookies' or to notify you when they are being sent.

SHARING OF INFORMATION

"PRIME ENERGY GROUP" Limited Liability Company shall under no circumstances sell or lease your personal information to third parties. We also do not disclose the personal information you provide, except in cases provided for by the legislation of Ukraine.

"PRIME ENERGY GROUP" Limited Liability Company takes appropriate measures aimed at ensuring the confidentiality and storage of your personal data (with the exception of information that you have publicly posted on social networks).

DISCLAIMER

Please remember that the transfer of personal information when visiting third-party websites—including those of partners of 'PRIME ENERGY GROUP' Limited Liability Company, even if a website contains a link to the Portal or the Portal contains links to these websites—is not governed by this document. 'PRIME ENERGY GROUP' Limited Liability Company is not responsible for the actions of other websites. The process of collecting and transferring personal information when visiting such sites is regulated by the legislation on personal data protection.
